PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Daiwa Capital Markets America

New York, NY

Debt Capital Markets Intern

June 2026 – Present

- Supported transaction execution across 7+ live investment banking deals spanning financial institution, corporate, and sovereign issuers across Latin America and Asia by preparing underwriting documentation alongside cross-functional deal teams, maintaining ownership of each transaction through closing.
- Built and maintained 3 dynamic financial models in Excel linked to live Bloomberg feeds for ratings, outlook, and Treasury benchmark data, enabling real-time valuation of fixed-to-floating, floating-to-floating, and floating-to-fixed bond structures across USD, JPY, and AUD.
- Conducted investor and market research for a multilateral development bank's roadshow by analyzing investor concentration by country, translating findings into client-ready marketing materials and a multi-city itinerary for the roadshow team.
- Prepared an 80+ page base prospectus for a Latin American microfinance institution's hybrid bond program by tailoring an internal template to the issuer's credit profile and financing needs, delivering client-ready marketing materials for the proposal call.
- Prepared 5+ Latin American corporate company profile presentations and 4 investor profiles for a joint DCMA and Daiwa Securities Group meeting by conducting financial statement, credit, and market positioning analysis, streamlining banker and client preparation.
- Structured a financing proposal for an environmental conservation initiative by evaluating project-based bonds, outcome-based bonds, and a full MTN program as distinct funding solutions, equipping the client to advance the business relationship on the related call.
- Built a bond disclosure methodologies case study by anchoring core disclosure and structuring concepts to a recent JPY bond issuance from a multinational electronics issuer, strengthening the team's reference materials on market conventions and transaction structuring.
- Facilitated multiple financial institution due diligence calls central to transaction structuring and execution by documenting key discussion points and open items in real time, giving the deal team an accurate and actionable reference record.
